PARTNERING AGREEMENT

The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers (USACE) and the International Interior Design Association (IIDA) agree to promote our mutual interests in providing efficient, high quality and responsive interior design and space planning services to support the Nation. We are committed to work together toward the following goals:

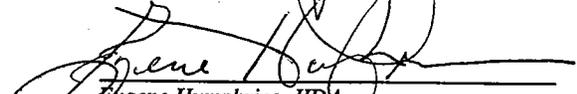

1. Enhance the quality of living and working environments through excellence in the practice of interior design.
2. Promote understanding of the need for and the value of excellence in building interiors.
3. Promote the ethical and competent practice of interior design through continuing education, exchange programs, and active membership in professional organizations.
4. Enhance the public recognition of the role of interior design practitioners and the need for excellence in interior environments.
5. Understand and clarify the changing roles of interior design practitioners.
6. Ensure communication continues between USACE and IIDA at all levels.
7. Invest in joint efforts to advance team building and to explore opportunities creatively to shape and address future missions of our organizations.
8. Promote the participation of diverse populations in the profession of interior design.
